SAYS the Bourbon News: "We have often seen the wheat high enough to hide a rabbit on Easter Sunday, but this year a rabbit can hide all the wheat."

If you should chance to pass Henry's furniture emporium to-day stop in and look at the new styles of parlor and bed-room furniture just received. His prices are lower than those of the manufacturer.

Primary Elections.

The Democratic Executive Committee of Mason County met at the law office of Whittaker & Robertson, at the call of the Chairman, on the 9th day of March, 1883, and issued the following orders:

That the Democratic voters of Mason County hold a primary election in the several precincts in said county, on the 4th day of April, 1883, to nominate a candidate to represent Mason County in the next House of Representatives of Kentucky, the candidate receiving the largest number of votes to be declared the nominee of the Democratic party for the said office, the Chairman of the Executive Committee to furnish suitable poll books in which to record the votes. It was further ordered that the polls in each precinct be opened on the morning of the fourth day of April next at eight o'clock a.m. and close at six o'clock p.m.; that the poll books be returned to the Chairman of the Executive Committee on Monday, the 7th of said month, by the Sheriffs of the several precincts and that they be counted by E. Whiteman, John W. Alexander, Thomas M. Downing, Ambrose Dixon and Dr. Reed, or a majority of them, who are authorized to declare who has received the greatest number of votes, and declare who has been chosen as nominee and issue to him a certificate accordingly. ### How He Struck It Very Rich.

Mr. J. B. Franz, proprietor of the St. James' Hotel, Manifold, O., is in luck on account of the purchase of a ticket in the Louisiana State Lottery. Several weeks since Mr. Franz, who has previously drawn small sums in the lottery, invested in one whole ticket, paying $10 for the same. Yesterday (Feb. 10th) the drawing was made and Mr. Franz received a telegram notifying him that his whole ticket had drawn $6,000 in cash, which sum is subject to his order.—Mansfield (Ohio) Liberal, Feb. 11th.

Made Short Work of It.

Mr. Z. O. Bost, of McAlistair, Cross Roads, Tenn., was sorely troubled with dyspepsia. He writes, "I have been nailing Brown's Iron Bottles; only used it a short time, and think I am well." It is one of the beauties of the good work accomplished by this wonderful iron tonic, that it is done so speedily. The work is permanent, too. Cures weakness, kidney and liver complaints, etc.

TUG grading, draining, etc., of the old jail for which has just been completed under the supervision of Mr. John Blanchard and his associates of the Committee on Public Buildings, is a very creditable piece of work, and was done at a very moderate cost. The property has been rendered very valuable to the city and much more useful for the purpose for which it is now used. The Committee is entitled to credit for the good work.

MR. MICHAEL MCGOWAN, a former citizen of Maysville, has returned from Georgetown, Ky., and will engage in business here. He is the new owner of Mr. Charles H. White's new store on Third street, and will open a merchant tailoring establishment. His old friends are glad to welcome him back.

MR. O. N. WEAVER, of Minerva, was in Maysville yesterday and gave a very gloomy account of the effects of the cold weather in his neighborhood. The wheat he says is entirely destroyed and most of the fields have been bailed frozen and the grass has been badly frozen and the white clover also.

We call attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Burrows & Atherton, printed in this issue of the BULLETIN. They have a large stock of buggies and carriages of home and foreign manufacture which they will sell at prices they guarantee will be satisfactory. You are invited to call and look at the stock.

DR. N. W. TRACY is this week conducting a temperance meeting at Owingsville. After this meeting is over he will work in Paris.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Simon, of Galveston, Tex., is visiting Mr. Simon, of this city.

The Bourbon News says: "Mrs. Zach Doty is very ill in Mason County."

Dr. R. L. Cooper, of Shelby County, is in this neighborhood visiting his relatives.

MR. E. B. Hildreth, of Johnson Station, was in Maysville Tuesday and received a warm welcome from his old friends.

MR. H. C. Ballenger will go to Winchester, Ky., next Monday, where he has made a business engagement that will continue during the entire season.

The marriage of Miss Mary Neal, daughter of Mr. Thomas Neal, to Mr. Charles Hubbard, will take place at the residence of Mr. Thomas Neal, tomorrow at 12 o'clock, noon. Ceremony by Rev. E. L. Powell.

We find the following in the Boston Herald of March 25th: "Col. Frank S. Owens, P. E. C. of the Maysville Commandery No. 10, of Maysville, Ky., so well known by all Knight Templars as the 15, 15, 22 commandery, has been in the city several days on business. The Colonel is one of the original 15, 15, 22."

COUNTY POINTS.

Germantown.

T. J. Black is steadily improving. T. C. Johnson and wife will visit this Queen City this week.

Rev. Barrett, of Fat Rock, who has been attending the meeting, is now very sick at Germantown.

The weather harshly sets on one thing before it "springs" into another "trap" i.e. we go out again.

What's the matter with the Red Ranger Rail "club" that won so many games? Why not keep up its enviable reputation?

Germantown was head of every hamlet in the county, and of course, the people were twenty-three, rather 30, but the next very year the population increased to 3000, and the schoolhouse, church, etc., were added.

The meeting came to a close Sunday night, and the crowd was immense. The crowd was never seen in town (to the best of my knowledge), and all the stores were crowded. The weather was cool and drizzling, and the people were dressed in their Sunday best. The weather was cool and drizzling, and the people were dressed in their Sunday best.

RIEL'S REBEL REVOLT.

ENGLAND'S TOY WAR ASSUMING QUASI-OUS PROPORTIONS.

The Liberal Party Leader Denounces False
Rumors and Makes Liberal Threats.
Annoying Complications—Guerrilla Warfare.

OTTAWA, April 1.—A lively scene occurred in the house of commons. The Hon. Edward Blake, leader of the liberal party, which had been attacked by Sir John Macdonald, which he said the liberals invited the half breeds to fly to arms, and supplied them with rifles. In forcible language he denounced the slander, and spoke of the loyalty of the liberal party. His passion rose gradually, and he could barely control himself. The spectators in the galleries and members on the floor became greatly agitated. Tears came to the speaker's eyes when he stated that the blood of his cousin had been spilt in the cause of freedom, and some of the rebels encountered near Dutch lake.

His nephew was on a train moving to the front and his son and brother's son had offered their services. Subsequently when a number of armed rebels had invaded the city and the people of Ottawa had held Sir John Macdonald responsible if any accident occurred to the forces because they were not supplied with the very best rifles procurable.

He asked what might be the expense, he added, "it would be nothing less than murder to send soldiers to the Northwest not properly armed, as the rebels have the best Remington repeating rifles."

The minister of militia said that he had issued all the Martini-Henry rifles now on hand, and the best arms and accoutrements would be furnished the men.

Sir John Macdonald said that no further steps were intended and he could not say. The white set of the rebels had been sent to every uneasy. Sir John said he received a telegram that the Indian chief Poundmaker and Little Pine had donned the war paint not far from Battleford and had many women with them. A large militia force will move on to that place as rapidly as possible.

The government has not yet heard definitely from Col. Irvine or otherwise burned Fort Carlton.

The minister of militia said that every precaution had been taken for arming the troops. Besides the forces already ordered to the frontier troops had been ordered to march immediately. The force under Lieut. Col. O'Brien, M. P.; corps of sharpshooters from the governor general's foot guards of Ottawa, and a corps of scouts. A total force of 1,500 men has already been assembled. The mounted cavalry had been organized and will start out from Ft. McLeod over the prairies.

Gen. Middleton has telegraphed the government that he found the feeling of uneasiness in the Northwest quite general, though he believed it to be temporary. He requested the government to have 2,000 additional troops in readiness to depart, as in case the Indians rise he considers that 4,000 troops will be required to cope with them. The government had been under the impression that the Indians would not rise, but three chiefs who were considered friendly have gone on the warpath.

GUERRILLA WARFARE.

TORONTO, April 1.—A movement is on foot among the rebels to recruit men for the means of self defense, and who are willing to undergo hardships to band together for guerrilla warfare and to bring Red in dead or alive. They will go through the United States as civilians and procure an outfit costing about $100 in Winnipeg. They will style themselves the Toronto rangers.

HUCKSTER NAILED.

AUSTIN, Texas, April 1.—The house by the adjutant general reported J. M. Tryon of Houston, clerk of the judiciary committee, for conduct unbecoming an employee. About a month ago Alexander Sampson, whom the committee had been investigating as a pecuniary clerk, wrote a letter to a well-known bucket shop proprietor of Galveston, stating that a pending bill in the legislature, known as the "bucket shop" bill—which prohibits spending in grocery stores—should—could be amended if the bucket shop men would pay Tryon $1,500 in the letter Sampson said: "Between us Tryon can plough-nose the bill. It need not be seen before the measure is passed."—Reported in the Times-Ticker, Houston, introduced the bill. The reading of Sampson's letter on the floor of the house by Representative Fisher, of Galveston, exposed the greatest corruption and meanness ever witnessed. Representative Fisher in a vigorous speech exposed the doings of the band of clerical blackmailers, who, he said had infested the legislative halls since the opening of session.

COLUMBUS THEATER BURNED.

COLUMBUS, O., April 1.—The Europa theater, located in the rear of the American hotel, has burned. It had been an old stable, and burned like a log. The building was owned by the heirs of James Watcutter. The loss will reach $30,000. Sam Douglas was the owner of the contents, including fixtures, wardrobe, property, etc., which were all destroyed. These were insured for $100. Englehart & Bigelow's stable and Andy Schwartz's plumbing establishment, adjoining, were saved only by the efforts of the fire department. No injuries in the fire are known. Douglas and a boy who slept in the building, had a narrow escape. The fire succeeded in closing a disreputable place, which was more than the police could do.

He Twanged the Harp of War.

LINCOLN, Ill., April 1.—The Rev. Mr. White condemned the Catholic religion and the Roman clergy in a lecture, whereupon forty or fifty coal miners present rioted in the hall, shouting, "The injun's are white," this lecturer, etc., on the head. Johnstone, the hall manager, severely injured; Henderson, a college student, badly beaten. Two or three others were slightly hurt. The police were powerless in their efforts to prevent a general混战.
